Divide Any Room, Just How You Want It

The Ropimex® RTH telescopic screen is wall-hook mounted (not self-supporting) with fold-down and swing-out action — engineered in Germany and exclusively distributed throughout Australia by CHS Healthcare.

Used in combination with a height-adjustable ceiling mount (RST) or an end support (GL), the longest arm — RTH 350 — achieves a screen length of 350 cm. With the RTH models and ceiling mounts, you can divide up any room just how you want it.

Key Features

- Wall-hook mounted, fold-down and swing-out — not self-supporting
- Pairs with height-adjustable ceiling mounts (RST 4 / 8 / 10) for room heights 245–400 cm
- End support (GL) used where a ceiling mount isn't practical, e.g. at a window
- Two lengths: RTH 300 (up to 300 cm) and RTH 350 (up to 350 cm)
- Glass-fibre reinforced polyamide disc at the base holds telescopic screen cubicle joints and RTH/RTA hooks securely
- CE marked medical device · anodised aluminium construction
